

MANY CANDIDATES FOR POSTMASTER HERE

Hungry Democrats Will Get to Pick Counter and Many Will Be Applicants.

With a complete change of administration at Washington, a clean sweep is expected as a matter of course, to be made in all federal offices. Candidates for postmasters are thicker than bees on a summer's day, and the new president will find his hands full, and undoubtedly his office full of office seekers when he takes his seat on the 5th of March.

Democrats are casting long eyes on the postoffice at Stanford, which Postmaster Florence has held down so well for the past 16 years. A great many are said to be prospective applicants and Congressman Harvey Halm, who will have the major portion of apportionment of the patronage in the eighth district, is going to have his hands full. Among those being "prominently mentioned" for the postmastership in Stanford, Lancaster and Danville, are:

Stanford—Judge James P. Bailey, W. A. Carson, George P. Bright, Miss Mary Bruce, John W. Rout and others.

Lancaster—J. R. Mount, M. D. Hughes and others.

Danville—H. H. Roberts, H. C. Bright and others.

The Louisville Herald gives as prospective aspirants for the position of Collector of Internal Revenue at Danville these: Col. R. G. Evans, Judge C. R. McDowell, Logan Wood, John Nichols, all of Danville. T. B. Robinson, of Lancaster, and Shelton M. Sautley of Stanford.

R. H. METCALF

Resigns as Cashier of McKinney Bank to go North.

McKinney, Ky., November 7th.—Mr. R. H. Metcalf and family will leave this coming week for Cisselo, Ind., to make their home. Mr. Metcalf will take charge of a bank at that place. Mr. Metcalf and family have a large number of friends, who regret to give them up but feel that our loss here is their gain. Men like Mr. Metcalf are hard to find and the people of this town realize their loss very keenly. Miss Lena Beck will go with them and remain there with her sister through the winter.

Grant Metcalf, of Paint Lick, has been elected cashier of the McKinney Deposit Bank here to succeed his brother, R. H. Metcalf, who resigned. Mr. Grant Metcalf comes to us highly recommended and we feel sure he will make a success as cashier.

Miss Ruth Tanner is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. C. Nunnally at Winchester this week.

Miss Clara Lindholm, of Kewanee, Ill., returned to her home this week after a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Beck. Miss Lindholm's mother returned with her.

Mrs. Hibler and attractive daughter, Miss Bruce have returned to their home in Bloomington, Ill., after a several days' visit with Mr. King Huston and sister of this place.

The Democrats of this place are wearing a smile on their faces for the last few days that will not come off.

Prof. Caldwell of the graded school went up to Berea to cast a vote for Roosevelt.

Mr. F. M. Ware, one of our leading merchants, here went to Louisville this week to buy new goods.

Miss Belle Gooch has been visiting her brothers, Clay and Stroud Gooch at Somerset this past week.

Willie Murphy, son of J. S. Murphy, of near town enlisted with the standing army at Somerset last week and is now stationed at Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. John Elliott, of near town is dangerously ill and not expected to live, but a little while. Mr. Elliott has been sick for some time.

Brother Gabbert will fill his regular appointment at the Christian church on Sunday morning and night also Christian Endeavor at 6:30. leader, Herman Gann.

Latest Election Figures

Woodrow Wilson will go into office with the largest electoral majority ever returned. Coincident with his personal victory the latest returns give the democrats a majority of 149 in the next House of Representatives, and an assured majority in the senate. No less than 19 republican governors have been deposed and democrats elected to their places. Wilson will have 439 votes in the electoral college to 77 for Roosevelt and 12 for Taft, and Wilson may even get Wyoming when the count is completed. Wilson carried every state in the union except Michigan, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Washington, all of which went for Roosevelt, and Idaho, Utah and Vermont which are in the Taft column, and with Wyoming still doubtful.

State wide prohibition won in West Virginia and lost in Colorado.

Kansas, Arizona, Oregon and Michigan adopted woman suffrage at the election Tuesday. Wisconsin defeated it decisively.

There are 11 counties in this district. In six of them Taft got more votes than Teddy while Teddy beat him in five.

Wilson, Roosevelt and Taft is the way they finished in the nation but Taft beat Roosevelt a few thousand votes in Kentucky.

Illinois, at first claimed for Roosevelt by 100,000, was found to be in the Wilson column, too, when all the returns were in.

Seavy, the Progressive, ran a bad last for Congress in the 11th, Powers winning by about 2,000 over Ben Smith, the democratic candidate.

Nick Longworth, Teddy's son in law, running as regular republican, was beaten by a democrat for reelection to congress from a Cincinnati district.

And old Joe Cannon, for years the Speaker—Czar of the House, went down in the landslide. A young democrat and ex-Kentuckian, took his measure for reelection to congress.

The Taft counties were Anderson, Mercer, Jessamine, Shelby, Madison and Spencer. Roosevelt led him in Adair, Casey, Lincoln, Garrard and Boyle. Wilson, of course, led in all of them, while Helm ran far ahead of the national ticket owing to his great personal popularity.

The showing Roosevelt made in Lincoln surprised everyone. Much of the credit for it is due to the untiring energy of County Chairman, W. P. Kincaid, who worked morning, noon and night for the Bull Moose ticket and was ably seconded by Judge John Menefee, John Chappell and others.

The Prohibition party got 84 votes in Lincoln county, a gain of 27 over the last election when only 57 were cast. Several Socialist votes were cast but the judges forgot to certify the number in several precincts. Judge Carroll, for Court of Appeals, E. V. Puryear for Commonwealth's Attorney, and J. F. Holdam for Circuit Clerk had no opposition so no tabulation was made of their vote which was right along with the national ticket.

Mix-up in Stock Law Election

Although the vote on the stock law election in the Hustonville magisterial district has one majority for the law on the returns as made, no report was made on the vote from the McKinney precinct and so the election, although apparently carried, may be invalidated. The officers of election at McKinney if they counted the stock law vote forgot to give the returns on the return sheet and so McKinney is not counted up in the vote below:

FOX HUNTERS MEET AT CRAB ORCHARD SPRINGS

Big Gathering of Sportsmen Expected Next Week—Local Dogs To Be Entered.

Announcement has been made that the National Hunters' Association will hold its annual meet at Crab Orchard Springs during the week beginning November 11, and extensive preparations are being made for the gathering. From present indications more members of the Association and persons interested in the chase, and more and a better class of dogs will be in attendance at the meet this year than ever before in the history of the Association.

Col. Jack Chinn is President of the Association, and Gen. Roger D. Williams of Lexington, master of hounds, and both have received assurances from the leading fox hunters of the country that they will attend and bring with them their best dogs. Crab Orchard Springs will be the official headquarters of the Association during the meet, and it is expected that quite a number of enthusiasts of the chase from Lexington and other towns of Central Kentucky will attend. If the weather is favorable some fine sport is looked for.

This meeting must not be confused with the State meeting, which was held at La Grange, Ky., and which was not well attended, owing to the unfavorable weather and lack of giving it due publicity.

Quite a number of Lincoln Fox hunters will go up to the Springs for the meet and will enter their dogs in the stakes.

WINS BIG SUIT

Popular Junction City Druggist Comes Out on Top.

W. A. Reynolds, the popular druggist, of Junction City, won an important legal victory last week, when the court of Appeals at Frankfort affirmed the case of Administrator of Mann against the Reynolds drug company.

It will be remembered that administrator brought suit for $20,000 against Mr. Reynolds, charging that he, by carelessness had sold Mann the wrong medicine, which was poisonous and resulted in his death. The trial was a great legal battle and every step was hotly contested in the lower court. Reynolds was represented by Attorney Raylins and Bagby, of Danville, while the plaintiff's interests were looked after by Harding and Harlan. Reynolds won the case in the lower court and this decision was affirmed. There isn't a nicer or better little drug store anywhere than the Reynolds & Evans pharmacy at Junction City, and the many friends of the two popular proprietors will congratulate them on their victory.

Marshall Newland Wins.

The victory of Marshall Newland, the popular young democratic Squire in the Crab Orchard district, was a source of much gratification to his many friends over the county. The vote was:

	Newland	Dillon
C. O. No. 1	172	143
C. O. No. 2	168	115

I. J. GIVES NEWS FIRST

Beat Dailies With Election News Four to Six Hours.

The city dailies are all talking about how each got out first with the news of the election, but the I. J. pulled off a little stunt of its own on the morning after the election, and gave the news first to quite a large community in this part of the state. The regular Tuesday is the day of the paper was delayed until Wednesday morning. By the assistance of its very efficient force, who worked all of the election night, the I. J. was out by four o'clock Wednesday morning with full details of the election, showing the tabulated vote in Lincoln county, a tabulation of the vote of most of the counties in the state and a comprehensive survey of the landslide to Wilson in the nation.

In addition to going out on the early morning mails to its 4,000 subscribers, news boys caught the five o'clock trains to Danville, Lancaster, Richmond and Lebanon and all intermediate points, giving the people of those cities the news from four to six hours earlier than they were able to secure it from the Louisville, Lexington or Cincinnati dailies. People in those towns seemed to appreciate the enterprise of the I. J. in being the first to serve the news, for the papers sold like hot cakes everywhere, and it proved a splendid advertisement for the I. J., already about the best known country paper in the state.

Big Fire at Lebanon Junction

Lebanon Junction, Ky., Nov. 3.—The Hoeker Hotel, a large two-story frame structure, containing nearly forty rooms, was destroyed by fire late this afternoon. While the loss cannot be definitely stated at this time, it is believed that it will be at least $20,000 and may be more. This includes both building and contents. The hotel was owned and conducted by S. K. Clark, who bought it from R. M. Hoeker, who operated it for many years. Mr. Clark did not carry any insurance and at the time of the fire was making many substantial improvements. The building stood near the railroad station, which for a time was in dire danger. The fire was the result of the explosion of an acetylene plant used in lighting the hotel. During the fire there was a second blaze, which seriously burned R. L. Mudd, a local jeweler.

City Supervisors Appointed

The regular monthly session of the Stanford City Council was held Thursday night. A Board of Supervisors consisting of H. R. Sautley, John S. Baughman and W. C. Shanks was appointed to go over the property listed by the city assessor. The board will begin its hearings on the first Monday in December.

Claims to the amount of about $2,000 were allowed different contractors on the concrete sidewalk work which has been done in the city during the past summer.

JUDGE HARDIN CLEARING UP DOCKET RAPIDLY

Much Work Done in Circuit Court This Week—Allen Walker Sent to Pen.

The regular November term of the Lincoln circuit court convened Monday morning with Judge C. A. Hardin on the bench. Judge Hardin has been ill with malarial fever for nearly a week and said it was with some difficulty that he came to Stanford this time. His voice betrayed his feeble condition though he spoke with vigor in his charge to the grand jury. Especial stress was laid upon violation of the election laws. He called attention to the deep interest taken in the campaign just closed; using it and the desire which citizens had shown to get at the root of the alleged evils, as an object lesson to the grand jurors, whereby they might get at the root of all law violations; and thus eliminate the high rate of criminality.

His charge showed some research of the criminal history of the country and statistics which he recited disclose the lamentable fact that crime is on the increase. The pith and moment of his charge to the grand jury was to get at the foundation of the evils and the punishment of the criminal should be exactly what the law prescribed and thus deter in the future the younger generation from yielding to the temptations to violate law because of the punishment which they feel such will follow. Following is a list of those who compose the grand jury: C. H. Carter; E. G. Baugh, J. T. Dudderar, Matt Holman, Frank Bobbitt, J. Ware, D. R. Adams, W. D. Johnson, R. C. Arnold, Stanley Stephenson, C. M. Young and George Hogue. The petit jury is as follows:

George W. Martin, George Rankin, George F. Perkins, J. H. Woods, J. L. Beazley, W. C. Manuel, C. W. Dunlap, T. J. Hill, H. D. Aldridge, Theo. Noland, H. F. Newland, J. A. Givens, W. F. Dishon, W. F. Shoemaker, W. T. Holdam, O. P. Huffman, H. D. Campbell, John Beck, R. M. Newland, Sam Chandler, Joe McAlister, J. F. Shaw, Wilson Alexander, T. L. Carpenter. Court then adjourned until Wednesday in order to allow all to indulge in the right of suffrage.

Circuit Court convened Wednesday morning with Judge Hardin ready for business. The first case called was that of the Commonwealth against Timothy Jordan, charged with shooting on the public highway. He was fined $50 and the costs. Thomas Chappell was given a $50 fine for a breach of the peace. Even handed justice is being meted out to the illegal whisky vendors, Charles Baughman, known as the most persistent liquor seller in Stanford, was given $60 and costs in one case and Uncle Sam has not yet had his turn in a number of cases which come under jurisdiction. R. Sims caught it to the tune of $50 for trafficking in liquor and Wm. Murray in one case caught it for $100 and 40 days in jail and in $75 and 40 days in another. Mrs. Murray will also spend ten days with Jailor Dink Farmer for a similar offense. Tol Burleson, a young man from the southern part of the county, was convicted of selling whisky and was punished by two fines of $75 which he is laying out in jail. The offender is a son of the postmaster at Waynesburg. The International Harvester Company was assessed a fine of $1,250 for violating anti-trust laws of Kentucky. Allen Walker, the negro porter, at George H. Farris' grocery store, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for perjury. Walker had sworn at the coroner's inquest over the remains of the late Anderson Carr's wife that he had not been in Carr's house at all on the day that Carr killed his wife. At his trial Wednesday witnesses were produced who said that Walker had been seen at Carr's house on the day of the murder and Walker himself on taking the stand admitted that he had been there and that Carr had confided to him that he had killed his wife and wanted him (Walker) to help spirit away the body. The negro gave as his reason for denying his presence at Carr's house was his fear that Carr, who was known as a desperate negro, would kill him if he gave away the murder. It will be remembered that Carr committed suicide shortly after the coroner's jury had remanded him to jail charged with the murder. The penalty in such cases is from one to five years, but the jury said that "under the peculiar circumstances" it believed that Walker's punishment should be fixed at the minimum.

Dr. John Cook, the well-known colored veterinarian, was charged by Bud Rowe, also colored, with having forged his name to a contract in connection with some livestock. Cook had gone on Rowe's bond and had taken from Rowe a written contract to turn over certain livestock, in case the bond was forfeited. Cook had to pay the bond and Rowe had sought to avoid his responsibility to Cook by charging that his name had been forged to the contract, but a jury found Cook not guilty.

Wm. Schooler, a negro, whose home is in Boneyville, was acquitted of the charge of breaking into the store of J. B. Wade, near Walnut Flat last summer. He had been in jail since the robbery and when the jury set him free, he almost shouted with joy. Wm. Tinsley, a white boy was fined $150 for cutting Geo. Estes and Joe Lane caught a $10 fine for breach of the peace.

The case of the Commonwealth against Clarence J. Sipple, charged with false swearing, is now occupying the attention of the court. The regular panel of jurors was exhausted and Judge Hardin ordered the sheriff to summon 20 more men. Nearly all of Friday morning was consumed in securing the jury, on account of the extended acquaintance or relationship of Sipple, or men having expressed opinions in the case. Attorneys E. H. Johnson and W. J. Hazelwood, of London, are here to assist Attorney K. S. Alcorn in the defense of Sipple.

LET'S SEND IN A TREE FOR LINCOLN COUNTY

Arbor Day Exercises to be Held at State Capitol Grounds on November 13.

November 13th has been chosen as Arbor Day for Kentucky. On that occasion a tree will be planted on the capitol grounds at Frankfort for every county in the state. As yet no tree has been sent in from Lincoln county. The Interior Journal is in receipt of a letter from State Forester J. E. Barton requesting that a tree be sent in from this county, and this paper will undertake to see that the tree is safely sent to Frankfort to be planted, if some good farmer will bring in a young sprout of some tree which will make a good showing for old Lincoln.

The exercises which will be held on Arbor Day at Frankfort will be appropriate. The exercises will be held on the rear portico of the Capitol, overlooking the arboretum, and will begin at 11 o'clock.

It was decided that in addition to the planting of a tree by representatives of each county, Governor McCreary will plant a burr oak for the state at large at the junction of the automobile drives, in a plat by itself. This tree was selected because of its sturdy growth and magnificent proportions. The program follows:

Invocation—The Rev. James Ziegler.

Welcome to the City—Mayor Jas. H. Polsgrove, of Frankfort.

Welcome to the Capitol—Governor James B. McCreary.

Antiquity of the Memorial Tree Planting and Its Sentiment—Attorney General James Garnett.

Arbor Day and Forestry—State Forester J. E. Barton.

Planting of trees by Public Schools—President Barker, of State University.

Address—Lieutenant Governor E. J. McDermott.

Forest Planting in Future—H. F. Hillemeier, of Lexington.

At the conclusion of the program representatives of each county will go to the tree designed for his county and complete the formal planting in the name of his people.

President Woodrow Wilson

What a magnificent victory it was!

But, at that, it was only commen-surate with the wonderful fight that our candidate waged from the moment he entered the arena for the nomination. The entire career of Woodrow Wilson is an inspiration.
He stands as truly typical of the fast increasing demand on the part of the American people for better and higher things in life, cleaner politics, integrity in official life as well as in business. In fact, he is the man who believes that the "great common people" as the lamented Goebel so aptly called them — are entitled to a square deal at all times and under all circumstances.
The call of the people for such a leader at the head of the nation, has come from all parts of the country, irrespective of previous political beliefs. States that have never before been found in a democratic column are discovered for Wilson this time.
His victory is an immense personal tribute, as well as a wonderful party victory. May the Lord of Hosts and the God of nations hold strong and true his hand at the helm of the old ship of state throughout the next four years.

flushes and the many symptoms which may be caused by distressing ill health to women. For those "dragging-down" pains or distress and for the derangements and irregularities the "Favorite Prescription" has had many thousands of testimonials from people living in every part of America. Another important thing to every woman is that this medicine is made from efficient medicinal roots, without the use of alcohol, narcotics, or any injurious agents. Full list of ingredients given on bottle-wrapper and sworn to by Dr. R. V. Pierce—who is President of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Every woman is invited to write to this Institute and receive confidential and sound medical advice, entirely without cost from one who makes the diseases of women his specialty.

Mrs. MORRIS.

"I can cheerfully recommend your remedies, especially your 'Favorite Prescription,' for all female disorders," writes Mrs. M. M. MORRIS, of Bluff City, Tenn., Route 2. "During the past seven years I suffered from pains in the back and ovaries. Tried many remedies but found only transient relief until I was persuaded by a friend to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After giving this remedy a fair trial, I found that it would do just what it is recommended to do. I used in all seven bottles. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce's remedies for all female derangements."

New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Mead of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Interior Journal readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

John H. Wren, E. Main Street, Stanford, Ky., says: "I know from experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are all that is claimed for them. Off and on for several years I had severe attacks of lame back. Often I did work that required stooping and at such times the backache became much worse. There was also a too frequent desire to void the kidney secretions both day and night. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and have never failed to benefit me since then when I have taken them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, ed States.

better than it ever was.

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.

A WINTER COAT

not only keeps cold out, but conserves body warmth; body-fat serves the same purpose, it enables us to resist unsettled elements and serves as the great source of our body-heat. Greater body-warmth means richer blood, more fat, not obesity but fat which the body consumes for warmth, vitality, resistance-power—as a furnace consumes coal for heat—Scott's Emulsion does this.

A teaspoonful after each meal makes body-warmth healthy, active blood—sharpens the appetite and makes all good food do good.

It drives out and keeps out colds by raising endurance-power and creating strength.

Stanford People have opportunity to hear Grand Opera Musicians

WE ARE unusually fortunate in being able to offer to the music lovers of this city this splendid New York success. The Neapolitans—all sons and daughters of sunny Italy, the land of music—have been a big musical success in this country, as well as in their native land. It is a complete orchestra under the direction of Signor Arturo Lambert, one of the best directors of Italy. A special feature will be the serenade music peculiar to the people of Naples—the entire company singing and playing. The principal vocal features, however, will be rendered by Signor Mario, tenor, and Mlle. Trevette, soprano, formerly of the Manhattan opera house, New York city, and late of the grand opera companies of Italy. These two singers will appear in solos and duets. Another splendid soloist is Signor Taffo, violin virtuoso, who was a great success in Europe with the Adriatic Concert company of Italy.
